Various tools for working a 12 step program of recovery. A standard phrase of 12 step groups is "It works if you work it". This brings up the question "How do you work it?" Part of the answer to working the steps usually involves writing things down, dealing with thoughts and reflections about beliefs, past behavior and past events.

Notebooking can be a lifesaver for the child that hates or is reluctant to write. Let him choose a topic he loves and send him off to the library to search for books on this topic.. For one of my sons, it was DINOSAURS. For one of my daughters, it was FROGS. For an older child, it may be a hobby, a favorite literature series, a particular topic in science or event in history.
