In number theory Fermat's Last Theorem (sometimes called Fermat's conjecture, especially in older texts) states that no three positive integers  $a$ ,  $b$ , and  $c$  satisfy the equation  $a^n + b^n = c^n$  for any integer value of  $n$  greater than 2. The cases  $n = 1$  and  $n = 2$  have been known since antiquity to have an infinite number of solutions.. The proposition was first conjectured by Pierre de Fermat in ...

The Maelstrom of Saltstraumen is earth's strongest maelstrom. It is located close to the Arctic Circle, 33 km (20 mi) round the bay on Highway 17, south-east of the city of Bodø, Norway. The strait at its narrowest is 150 m (490 ft) in width and water "funnels" through the channel four times a day. It is estimated that 400 million cubic metres (110 billion US gallons) of water passes the ...

1. Introduction and Historical Overview. Near Infrared Spectroscopy (NIR) is a type of vibrational spectroscopy that employs photon energy ( $h\nu$ ) in the energy range of  $2.65 \times 10^{-19}$  to  $7.96 \times 10^{-20}$  J, which corresponds to the wavelength range of 750 to 2,500 nm (wavenumbers: 13,300 to 4,000  $\text{cm}^{-1}$ ). This energy range is higher than necessary to promote molecules only to their lowest excited ...

From recent media reports (e.g. the WaPo's Capital Weather Gang) you would think that the new RSS satellite dataset for the lower troposphere (LT) has resolved the discrepancy between climate models and observations.. But the new LT dataset (Version 4, compared to Version 3.3) didn't really change in the tropics. This can be seen in the following plot of a variety of observational datasets ...

According to the documentary short Evolution vs. God, Darwinism is a leap of faith that falls far short of Creationism in explaining the mysteries of our existence. The film, which could have presented a fascinating open debate on a crucial subject, quickly devolves into a shallow-minded "gotcha"
